IAP2 Australasia Individual Membership Application Form

The International Association for Public Participation (IAP2) is a not-for-profit organisation established to advance the practice of public participation world wide.

IAP2 Australasian members will be entitled to the following benefits:

- † An Australasian network of over 2000 practitioners;
- † Discounts to all IAP2 Australasian conferences and symposiums;
- † Discounts for IAP2 local events held in Australia and New Zealand;
- † IAP2 Australasia e-newsletter;
- † Electronic copies of IAP2 International e news and Participation Quarterly;
- † Regular information on IAP2 training programs;
- † Early advice on accredited IAP2 training held in Australia and New Zealand
- † Access to the IAP2 Australasian Members only website.
- † The opportunity to provide leadership and expertise in our profession by joining the Australasian committee;
- † The opportunity to contribute to all IAP2 publications, both International and Australasian;
- † Early bird (but not member) discounts at IAP2 International conferences;
- † Be involved in the Association that has steered the development of the first UN Declaration on Community Engagement;
- † The opportunity to be a financial member of the only professional association that supports public participation in our region, assists your professional life and is fun!

In March 2005 a new financial model for Australasian was adopted by members. It is an exciting way forward for practitioners in Australasia as it allows for membership to be paid in Australian dollars, with over 60% of the funds being used in Australasia to support the local Association.

The new model will make it easier to achieve goals set by the affiliate committee – primarily the development of professional resources and services. With the Affiliate growing to be the largest in IAP2 in terms of numbers, the committee want to work towards a truly Australasian organisation.

IAP2 Australasia offers a network of professional practitioners in all fields of public participation, and related work. We meet regularly and aim to hold interesting and thought provoking events, seminars, conversations and conferences that will give you an extra edge in your work.

We welcome your ideas, experience and energy to IAP2 Australasia.

IAP2 Australasian Individual Membership Application Form

IAP2 International Membership - top up fee

IAP2 Australasian members are now eligible to pay a small additional fee to belong to both the Australasian Affiliate and also the International body.

What is the difference?

The Australasian affiliate allows you to have local benefits such as discounts to events throughout Australia and New Zealand.

By paying the top up fee you will be a member of both organisations. You will gain the additional benefits of the international body that are currently not covered by your Australasian membership. These include:

- Discounts to the IAP2 International Conference.
- Hard Copy of the PQ Magazine.
- International email newsletters

The top up fee was introduced to allow members to belong to both organisations without paying two separate membership fees. The top up fee is also calculated in Australian Dollars to assist with payment.

Top Up Fee Amount

Individual Top Up Membership fee

AUD$130

This fee is in addition to the AUD$160 Individual fee.

I would like to pay the additional top up fee, therefore becoming a member of the international body in addition to the Australasian Affiliate.
